Our Team.

At Asia One, we prioritize the development of our employees. We prefer to hire students just out of school and provide them with opportunities for growth within our company. After two years of employment, we send our department heads to China for additional training in their respective departments. Our focus is not only on improving their working skills but also on developing their life skills. We train our team members from graduation to career positions and teach them how to use what they learn from us to improve their future years to come.
